

Jesus Christ Is No Trinitarian

ecclesiasticalresearches.com

There were times when Jesus allowed himself to be worshipped as God. John 20:27-29 “Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God” (Transliteration: The Lord of me and the God of me). “Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.”

Jesus was fulfilling the plan of God that had been made from the foundation of the world (Revelation 13:8). He was a servant, he is a Saviour, he is a mediator between God and men but Jesus Christ is no Trinitarian. He loves Trinitarians he died for Trinitarians and he wants them to know him for what he really is: Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace (Isaiah 9:6) The King of kings and Lord of lords. Some day he will return to show all who he really is. When that day comes there will be no doubt, there will be no questions, there will be no time to reconsider your opinion of Who Jesus Really Is!
