Introduction

Prayer basically is communication with God. War is armed conflict between at least two parties.

Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

This booklet is to inform and orientate those who are desiring a stronger relationship with God and how to develop it through prayer. There are different types of prayers for certain needs and situations. It is the desire of the author to communicate and challenge the reader to cultivate his or her walk with God through prayer, so that it becomes a way of life. Not in a ceremonial, ritualistic sense, but rather in an intimate walk with God in life's journey. God made man to have a friend with whom he would converse daily (Gen. 3:8; James 2:23; Isa. 1:8; 2Chron 20:7). Although man broke this communion by disobedience, God still seeks seekers who will worship him in spirit and truth (Jn. 4:24).

But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. 24 God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

Additionally, the reader will discover we live in a world surrounded or occupied, not only by visible creation, but by an invisible world in conflict. The good news is that God has delegated authority and the means to affect these worlds through biblical prayer war. Advisedly, this is not fiction...nor a game, rather it is the ancient battle between good and evil. As one elder declared, "prayer is a battlefield". "We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers..." The weapons of our warfare are not fleshly, rather spiritual in nature. Servant of the Lord pick up your weapons and come down from the bleachers and into the battlefield of prayer. It is the final hour... the greatest hour...yet the worst of hours. Prayer, not sleep, must be priority at the midnight hour!
