

The Handwriting of God

ecclesiasticalrese

1 Tim. 3:14 “These things write I unto thee...”

1 John 1:4 “And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.”

If you are inspired enough to preach it, be disciplined enough to write it.

God has chosen three times to record in His own handwriting that which He wished man especially to notice. Once, the finger of the mighty God traced the letters in the solid stone (Deut. 9:10). A second time on the plaster of a king's palace wall (Dan. 5:5 & 24-28). And a third time in the drifting sand. (John 8:3-11). We hear of things written in heaven, but how solemn when God stoops to write on earth!

Throughout human history, God has most commonly relied upon the agency of man for His written records of truth. Consequently, we are the hands of God. If we are not willing to write it down, then most likely, it's not worth hearing. If we are not willing to leave our signature upon it, then most likely, it's not worth reading either.

- Preaching is the proclamation of truth
- Writing is the preservation of truth
- Teaching is the defining of truth
- Writing is the legacy of truth
- Reprove, rebuke, and exhort, is the administration of truth
- Writing is the memorializing of truth

Rev. 1:3 “Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.”

Write these things down!!

Bill Pitman